Dean of the College of Business and Economics

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

California State University, Los Angeles, seeks an inspiring and innovative leader to serve as Dean of the College of Business and Economics. Reporting to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs and working in collaboration with faculty, students and staff, the Dean will provide dynamic, visionary leadership to build upon the strengths of the College and develop new opportunities to fulfill the College’s role as a model of intellectual and community engagement.

The Dean provides academic and administrative leadership to the College’s six departments, the Deans’ Advisory Council, CBE Advisement Center, The Center for Entrepreneurship and Innovation and the Asian Pacific Business Institute. It is home to 14 baccalaureate degree programs or options and seven graduate degree programs. The College has 86 tenure track faculty, 125 part-time lecturers and over 4300 students. With an operating budget of over $13,500,000, it generates more than 3100 FTES.

Cal State LA is engaged in an exciting period of transformation as it revitalizes its curricula, fulfills its mission as an engine of social mobility by producing well-prepared 21st century graduates, and bolsters its presence as a regional leader. AACSB accredited, the College is in the midst of an inclusive strategic planning process. This is an exceptional opportunity for a dynamic and talented individual to advance the College during an exciting time of change and renewal. The successful candidate will bring a commitment to student success and scholarship, a strategic vision to energize and support research and entrepreneurial activities, and the ability to ensure administrative excellence as Cal State LA becomes a destination campus and a dynamic force in the LA region.

THE UNIVERSITY

Cal State LA is one of 23 campuses within the California State University system. With over 60 undergraduate and 58 graduate degree programs led by award-winning faculty, Cal State LA’s dedication to access and excellence has been recognized nationally. Our success as an engine of change was recently confirmed in a study by The Equality of Opportunity Project that ranked Cal State LA #1 in the U.S. for the upward mobility of its graduates. Founded in 1947, the University is located just minutes from downtown Los Angeles, adjacent to the San Gabriel Valley, and serves more than 28,000 students who reflect the rich ethnic and racial diversity of the area. As a federally recognized Hispanic-serving and Minority-serving institution, Cal State LA recognizes the transformative power of education and embraces its duty to identify and serve the needs of all of its students. This longstanding commitment is reflected in its history as home to the nation’s first Chicano Studies program, second Pan-African Studies program, and Latin American and Asian and Asian American Studies programs. In addition to meeting fully its obligations under federal and state law, Cal State LA is committed to creating a community in which a diverse population can live, work and learn in an atmosphere of civility and respect for the rights and sensibilities of each individual.

THE COLLEGE

The College of Business and Economics is among the top 10 California public institutions ranked in US New & World Report and has been listed among the nation’s best colleges for over a decade for its undergraduate and graduate programs. The College is also home to two thriving programs at Cal State LA’s site in Downtown Los Angeles (DTLA): a BS in Business Administration and a Fully Employed MBA. It is home to the Center for Entrepreneurship & Innovation with dedicated sponsors, strong ties to the business community, year-round events and campus-wide student participation. The Business Pitch and participation in Kauffman Foundation’s Global Entrepreneurship Week are just two of the many annual events. Working in CBE’s Nongshim Innovation Lab, our student teams have competed in and won many competitions, earned NSF grant funding and have developed successful start-ups. Recent recognitions include a first place finish for a team of undergraduate students sponsored by the Center in the 2016 L.A. Mayor’s Cup pitch competition—the only undergraduate student team to place from among nearly 100 participating teams. The College coordinates the Marshall Geller Golden Eagle Opportunity Fund (GEOF), a student run investment portfolio and sponsors VITA, a tax preparation program for students working with faculty to prepare taxes for low-income members of the community. Our many active student organizations build ties to professional organizations and the community including Creative Artists Agency, JPL, Boeing, Southern California Edison, and many other corporations as well as major accounting firms.

The success of the college is most easily measured by the tremendous enrollment growth it has enjoyed, increasing from a headcount of 3,231 in 2010 to 4,316 in 2018. The college’s graduate programs in healthcare, data analytics, information systems, business administration and others serve a growing number international students and recently established programs at the university’s Downtown LA (DTLA) campus are showing robust enrollments.

THE POSITION

The Dean serves as the chief operating and academic officer of the College of Business and Economics and is responsible for creating and sustaining an environment in which academic excellence is pursued by faculty, students, administrators and staff.
